

Do You Know About Night Middle School?

Night middle school is aimed at those who could not complete their mandatory education for any number of reasons. Currently, there are no night middle schools in Oita Prefecture.

The Oita Prefecture Board of Education is currently trying to find out if there are people interested in night middle school in Oita.

● Night middle school is public school just like day middle school.

- There are classes five days a week (excluding weekends and public holidays).
- Subjects (Japanese, math, music, physical education) are the same as daytime middle school, and field trips and other similar events also take place.
- You graduate middle school once you have completed all of the courses.

● People Eligible to Enter Night Middle School:

- Those 16 and older who have not graduated middle school
- Those who have graduated from middle school, but were not able to receive most of their middle school education due to varying circumstances
- Middle school students who want to attend night school due to not being able to attend day school
- Foreigners who were unable to complete mandatory education in their home country
