

What is the 1300th Anniversary of Enshrinement?

The National Treasure "Usa Jingu," one of Oita Prefecture's most renowned tourist sites, is the head shrine of approx. 40,000 Hachiman shrines across Japan. It is also known as the birthplace of Shinbutsu-shugo (the combination of Shinto and Buddhism). This year marks the 1300th anniversary since Hachiman Okami, the divine spirit of Emperor Ojin, was enshrined in the First Hall of Usa Jingu in year 725.

Once every ten years, the Emperor sends a messenger (Chokushi) to a shrine to offer offerings (Heihaku) on behalf of the Emperor.

There are 16 shrines nationwide that are known as "Shrines of the Chokushi's Visit," and one of them is Usa Jingu. Additionally, the Kure Bridge becomes a rare sacred bridge that the Chokushi crosses once every ten years.
